Rules, 1991, for the following Article of Charge issued by the DG&IGP&CS., AP., Hyderabad vide Memo No. EB3/642/ 2005-2, dated 10-08-2006.

That the said Sri G. Sudarshan Rao, Jailor, PAC, exhibited lack of executive qualities and inefficiency which reflected on the administration, thereby contravened Rule-3 of APCS (Conduct) Rules, 1964.

STATEMENT OF IMPUTATION:

During preliminary enquiry conducted by the Addl. IG of Prisons (TR), Hyderabad, on 02-02-2006 & by Sri K. Ravi

leveled against the Superintendent & Sri G. Dharma Raju, Sr Assistant, District Jail, Asifabad, the following allegations were found prima facie true.

(C. No. 17410/Pri

- a) Sri R. Mondaiah, Scavenger of District Jail, Asifabad, was frequently going out in between duty hours and worked at the Superintendent's residence. False timings were shown in the relevant Jail record.
- b) Sri G. Dharmaraju, Senior Assistant (u/s) marked his present falsely in the attendance register on certain dates even though he remained actually absent.
- c) Sri G. Dharmaraju, Senior Assistant (u/s) misappropriated temporarily an amount of Rs. 2, 766/- which was meant for payment to the Bharat Gas Agency during July/August, 2005.
- d) Sri M. V. Ramakrishna, Warder of the Jail was given undue favour by the Superintendent for selling guava fruits of the Jail garden for Rs. 7, 200/- violating tender rules.

As senior executive officer, Sri G. Sudarshan Rao, Jailor, should have stopped the above illegal activities, misappropriation of Government money etc., by verifying the records as per Rules. He should have brought such irregularities to the notice of the Superintendent in writing. But he failed to do so. He was found wanting in executive qualities and without his collusion or carelessness the administration could not have been so inefficient. As a responsible Jailor, he failed to perform his duties properly. Hence, the charge.

4. The DG&IGP&CS., AP., Hyderabad, has appointed Sri A. Siva Prasad, Principal, SICA, Hyderabad, as Enquiry Officer to conduct enquiry into the article of charge framed against the Charged Officer among two others in common proceedings. The Enquiry Officer has submitted his report vide Lr No. SICA/610/2007, dated 15-06-2007, and the charge was proved against the Charged Officer.

5. Accordingly, after following the due procedure prescribed under A.P. Civil Services (CC&A) Rules, 1991, the DG&IGP&CS., AP., Hyderabad, has awarded the punishment of "Censure" on the delinquent officer vide proceedings No. EB3/642/2005-2, dated 12-02-2008.

6. Aggrieved by the said punishment, Sri G. Sudarshan Rao, Jailor, has filed the appeal petition before the Government on 29-02-2008 and requested to set aside the orders of punishment. He refuted the (4) grounds set out in the statement of imputation, which were based for framing the charge against him on the following grounds:

1. The allegation that Sri R. Mondaiah, Scavenger of District Jail, Asifabad, was frequently going out in between duty hours and worked at the Superintendent's residence and false timings were shown in the relevant Jail record, is not proved by the Enquiry Officer.

2. The allegation that Sri G. Dharmaraju, Senior Assistant (u/s) marked his present falsely in the attendance register on certain dates even though he remained actually absent is not sustained. Sri G. Dharmaraju, was promoted as Senior Assistant from the cadre of Typist and he has no knowledge of work relating to accounts. Hence, he used to go Mancherial Town to prepare PRC bills of the staff in consultation with experts. Therefore, he was permitted by the Superintendent to sign in the attendance register, since he actually attended the office work at Mancherial Town.
3. The allegation that Sri G. Dharmaraju, Senior Assistant (u/s) misappropriated temporarily an amount of Rs. 2, 766/- which was meant for payment to the Bharat Gas Agency during July/August, 2005, is not proved by the Enquiry Officer.
4. The allegation that Sri M. V. Ramakrishna, Warder of the Jail was given undue favour by the Superintendent for selling guava fruits of the Jail garden for Rs. 7, 200/- violating tender rules, is not sustained. Due to the zeal and efforts made by the administration only, the yield by selling Guava fruits has increased from Rs. 2,000/- to Rs. 7, 200/- per annum and all this was done according to the existing system which has been followed during the last (10) years and it was never questioned by the Regional Officer, who was inspecting the Jail Garden every year.

7. The DG&IGP&CS., AP., Hyderabad, has furnished the following remarks on the appeal petition of Sri G. Sudarshan Rao.

1. The Additional IG of Prisons (TR), Hyderabad, and Sri K. Ravi Prasad, DSJO, have conducted the preliminary enquiry into the allegations setout in the statement of imputation and established prima facie evidence against G. Sudarshan Rao, Jailor.
2. As a senior executive officer, G. Sudarshan Rao, Jailor, has failed to stop the illegal activities in District Jail, Asifabad. He also failed to bring these things to the notice of the Superintendent in writing. He was found wanting in executive qualities and without his collusion, the administration could not have been so inefficient. As a responsible Jailor, he failed to perform his duties properly.

(C. No. 17410/Pri.

3. This is a case of inefficient administration and lack of control over the administration by Sri C.R.K. Prasad, Dy. Superintendent and G. Sudarshan Rao, Jailor. The Enquiry Officer has proved the charge. After taking a lenient view considering the long service of the delinquent officer, he was punished with Censure which is a formal punishment.

4. The applicant did not present any new facts and evidence in his appeal petition. As there are no merits in the appeal petition, it is liable to be dismissed.

8. Submitted that Enquiry Officer has not drawn any inferences in his assessment to substantiate the allegations set out in the statement of imputation which were ground for the article of charge against G. Sudarshan Rao, Jailor. In fact the allegations that the Scavenger used to work in the Superintendent's residence and misappropriation of amount by the Senior Assistant could not be proved by the Enquiry Officer on valid reasons. Regarding the allegation that the false marking of attendance particulars in respect of Senior Assistant and Charged Officer's failure to verify the attendance register, the Charged Officer has pleaded that it is not within his purview as the register used to be with the Superintendent. Further, the Enquiry Officer has not discussed the allegation that the Warder of the Jail was given undue favour by the Superintendent for selling guava fruits of the Jail garden for Rs. 7, 200/- violating tender rules.

9. Submitted for orders on para (6) on pages 2-3 ante. After orders are passed, the file may be circulated to Hon'ble M (Home) for approval.
